

Figures shown in the right margin indicate full marks

Answer Six questions, taking Three from each section including Q.1, Q.2, Q.5 and Q.6

Use separate answer script for each section.

Assume reasonable data if necessary.

Section-A

- Q.1 (a) Good governance ensures transparency, accountability, and efficiency, fostering trust and progress in society. What are its key elements of good governance? [CO1,PO6,C1,KP1] 2
- (b) Describe the characteristics of good governance and explain its significance in promoting social and economic development. [CO2,PO7,C2,KP1] 5
- (c) Explain how the Nine-I Theory is applied to implement good governance in Bangladesh. [CO2,PO7,C2,KP1] 5
- Q.2 (a) What was the Permanent Settlement Act, and how did it impact land ownership in British India? [CO1,PO6,C1,KP1] 2
- (b) Identify were the causes behind the Permanent Settlement Act, and what changes did it bring to land tenure in Bengal? [CO3,PO12,C2,KP1] 4
- (c) The Permanent Settlement Act of 1793 fixed land taxes in Bengal, reshaping the fate of Zamindars and peasants. Analyze the impacts of the Permanent Settlement Act on Zamindars, peasants, and the broader socio-economic structure of Bengal. [CO3,PO12,C4,KP1] 6
- Q.3 (a) Define the term "Janapads" and briefly explain their significance in ancient Bangladesh? 4
- (b) Discuss the theoretical characteristics of Janapads and analyze their implications for the socio-economic and political development of ancient Bangladesh. 7
- Q.4 (a) What is Bengal partition and what were the main motivations behind the 1905 partition of Bengal. 4
- (b) Analyze the long-term political, social, and cultural consequences of the 1905 Bengal partition and its role in strengthening nationalist movements in India. 7

Section-B

- Q.5 (a) Define foreign policy and discuss its core principles that guide a nation's international relations and diplomacy. [CO1,PO6,C1,KP1] 4
- (b) Bangladesh's foreign policy balances strategic diplomacy with regional challenges in a dynamic global context. Analyze the characteristics of Bangladesh's foreign policy, explain how it is implemented, and evaluate the key challenges it faces in the context of regional and global relations. [CO3,PO12,C4,KP1] 8

(a) Define the CHT Treaty and explain its role in resolving the Chittagong Hill Tracts conflict. [CO1,PO6,C1,KP1]

(b) Discuss the key provisions of the CHT Treaty, examine the implementation challenges, and analyze the major political and ethnic conflicts in Bangladesh. [CO2,PO7,C2,KP1]

8

(a) Define the Six-Point Movement and explain its significance in the political history of Bangladesh.

3

(b) Explain the Six-Point Demands, the causes behind them, and evaluate their aftermath and impact on the political landscape of East Pakistan.

8

(a) What were the main factors that led to the Bangladesh Liberation War of 1971?

3

(b) Analyze the causes, major events, and consequences of the 1971 Liberation War in Bangladesh, and discuss its significance in the country's struggle for independence.

8